Harvey Watterson Killed.

Harvey Watterson, son of Henry Watterson editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, was instantly killed Monday, for the Sunday school chilfron a window of his law office on the nineteenth floor of the Trust Company of America building Wednesday afternoon in New York city. It was from one of the side windows overlooking the United States Trust Company building that he fell and he landed on the roof of that building, nine stories below. Death, according to Coroner's Physician Lehane, must have been instantaneous. After a careful examination Dr. Lehane pronounced the fatality a case of accidental death. The theory accepted by Dr. Lehane and held by Mr. Watterson's law partners, Thomas E. Wing and Philip W. Russell, and others in a position to have first-hand information, is that Mr. Watterson's rand slipped as he was endeavoring to close a window in his private office and that he tell forward as a fresult with such force that he was unable to catch the sides of the window or the sill. The sill is very low, reaching only to one's knees, and could afford little protection in such a cir-

Speaks Well of Him.

The Chicago Record-Herald, a Republican paper, says:

"Mr. Bryan's ambition was thoroughly legitimate and honorable. He undoubtedly wished and hoped to serve the country with single-minded devotion. But he has the consolation of knowing that, albeit in a different spirit and after a different manner, the main policies which he has eloquently advocated in common with Roosevelt

"Moreover, Mr. Bryan has nobly and sincerely preached to his fellowmen and 'peace' that is 'the reward of conscience void of offense toward God and man." The humblest citizen, he has said, can secure that peace, that satisfaction, equally with hm who wields lasting sorrow."

Teddy's Day to Shout.

Of course it is Theodore Roosevelt's day to shout, and we would not if we could inflict upon him the terrible punishment of silence, says the Philadelphia Record. But the election is not region of Kentucky is due to the limemuch of a victory for him after all. The country elected Mr. Taft not because he was Mr. Roosevelt's candidate, but in spite of it. After the turmoil and agitation and distrust which he has succeeded in inflicting upon the country, the voters took Mr. Taft because he as the most conservative of all the candidates in the field. There was legislation in restraint of corporoatins and there were prosecutions of corporations before the Roosevelt era, and they aroused no public distrust and did not knock the bottom out of the market. McKinley and Harrison maintained the right of the community to protect itself from mismanaged corporations, but they did not threaten anybody; they did not attack wealth, property or Speaking of cats, there are photogeven corporate management. Under Mr. Taft there be further corporation legislation and there may be prosecutions of railroads and industrials. But there will be no such language in messages to Congress, in speeches and letters for publication, as the President has been distinguished for, and the ordinary course of legislation and litigation will proceed as it did before Theodore Roosevelt anointed himself

A Republican Congress.

When, after his inauguration next March, President Taft calls the Sixtyfirst Conrgess together in special session he will have a Republican majority in both houses to carry out that policy of tariff revision to which 'he is personally pledged by his public utterances, and to which his party is bound by its platform promises. While the majority is not so overwhelmingly as that elected with Theodore Roosevelt four years ago, and while Democratic gains in such States as Colorado, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Iowa are not without significance, the House is still strongly, the Senate overwhelmingly Republican.

There has been no Democratic Congress since the one elected with Grover Cleveland in 1892. That Congress, the Fifty-third, contained in the Senate 44 Democrats, 33 Republicans and 3 Populists, and in the House a tidal wave majority of 220 Democrats to 126 Republicans. Two years later both branches of Congress became Republican and they have so remained.

The Roosevelt tidal wave of 1904 carried 250 Republicans into office as Representatives and left only 36 Democrats; the Senate in the new Congress stood 58 to 32. The present Senate has a two-thirds Republican majority, 61 to 31; and in the House there are now 224 Republicans and 167 Democrats. These proportions will not be greatly changed as to relieve the majority party of its full measure of legislative responsibility.

The chief "stand-patter" of the country must preside over a tariff-revision House, unless platform pledges are made only to be broken. Speaker Cannon won in the Eighteenth Illinois District two years ago by 10,060 votes. The campaign against him this year has been one of extraordinary vigor and virulence and has attracted nationand Taft will be continued and extend- al attention. He is apparently elected by a greatly reduced plurality to preside over the framing and passage of a reformed tariff Trusts are Trusts.

Speaking of trusts, says the Todd County Progress? We want to ask our good farmer friends what they think of great Power. Mr. Bryan will never be the bunch of thieves that compel us 'ahumble citizen,' for he is too gifted poor devils on a country paper to pay for such a role. Lime Water Good for Teeth.

Physicians who have experimented believe that excellent results are obtained for the teeth by the use of simple lime water. It is claimed that the reason of the fine bony structures of people and horses in the blue-grass soaked vegetation. It is argued that a mild amount of lime taken into the system when a child will improve the structural condition of the teeth.

Shower of Sulphur.

Charolies, a small town 30 miles from Macon, in France, has recently been visited by a shower of sulphur. The roofs, gardens, fields, vineyards, rivers dust, and for some time the peasants in the fields were troubled by a sulphurous biting odor which made breathing difficult.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

He continues "in Helonias we have a medicarenet which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain

Real Rose Hat Pins

It does not seem possible, yet it is true, that these Hat Pins are made out of real live roses, changed entirely into metal by a secret process, preserving every detail of the rose from which each pin is made. They can not break, and will last forever. This discovery is without doubt one of the lost arts of the ancient Egyptians. They are the most beautiful of all Hat Pins. No two are alike, Finished in five colors, to conform to the prevailing fashions in millinery. Made in six sizes, from the smallest rose bud to the full blown flower These pins are made by the genuine "DELAMOTHE" secret process, the only process by which an open rose can be perfectly metalized. How to Cure a Cold.

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold and when you do, get a medicine of know reliabilty, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. G. Green gives alert personal attention to his greet humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung roubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. • Twe did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. The know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cem bottle of German Syrup will speedily related on the property of the p ieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c.; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

LOOKING BACKWARD.

What Is the Earliest Event In Life

"I can remember back to my fourth year," said a physician. "I was four during the Philadelphia Centennial of 1876, and I remember two Centennial scenes well. One was a great room full of brass band instruments-horns so big and yellow and shiny that they delighted me. I remember, too, a Turkish coffee room. My father took me into this room. Turks in native dress served the coffee. I liked the place at first; then I saw that it was noisy. The native waiters shouted horribly. I was frightened. I was on the point of tears, but whether I cried or not I can't tell you."

"I can remember back to the time when I was three," said a lawyer. "At the age of three my family took me to Cape May. I saw my father out in the water. He laughed and held out his arms to me, and, all dressed, I ran into the sea to him."

"All of us," said a psychologist, "can remember back to our fourth year. Some of us can even remember back to the second year. It would make an earliest memories of a lot of people. The trouble, as a rule, is to fix the date of these memories, so as to be sure of our age at the time."-Pittsburg Press.

PUNCTUATION.

Originated by Aristophanes and Revived by Charlemagne.

Punctuation by means of stops and of sentences and assist the reader to a proper enunciation, is ascribed origipally to Aristophanes, a grammarian of Alexandria, Egypt, who lived in the third century B. C. Whatever his system may have been, it was subsequently neglected and forgotten, but was reintroduced by Charlemagne, the various stops and symbols being designed by Warnefried and Alcuin.

The present system of punctuation was introduced in the latter part of the fifteenth century by Aldus Manutius, a Venetian printer, who was responsible for our full stop, colon, semicolon, comma, marks of interrogation and exclamation, parenthesis and dash, hyphen, apostrophe and quotation marks. These were subsequently copied by other printers until their use became universal.

Most ancient languages were innocent of any system of punctuation. In many early manuscripts the letters are placed at equal distances apart, with no connecting link between, even in the matter of spacing, an arrangement which must have rendered reading at sight somewhat difficult.-Chi-
